WHY COVER THE CRUCIFIX AND STATUES?

It has long been the custom to cover statues and crosses during the latter part of Lent through Holy Week. The origin of this probably derives from a German custom from the ninth century, of extending a large cloth before the altar. This cloth hid the altar from the faithful during Lent and was not removed until the reading of the Passion at the words "the veil of the temple was rent in two." Some say there was a practical reason for this practice insofar as the often illiterate faithful needed a way to know it was Lent. Also, in ancient times many of the crosses in churches were covered with jewels. These crosses were covered, along with the statues, to help people meditate more on the sufferings of Jesus.
